Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club's Thanksgiving Dinner – A Southern Tradition

Durham, N.C., November 4, 2014 — Gather together with family and friends to give thanks over an elegant Thanksgiving buffet at the Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club. This festive meal with all the trimmings takes place Thursday, Nov. 27 in the Presidents Ballroom with seatings at noon, 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. Each seating features classical piano tunes played on the Inn's baby grand piano.

Executive Chef Jason Cunningham and his culinary team are cooking up succulent herb-roasted Joyce Farms heritage turkey and slow-roasted garlic and rosemary rubbed steamship of Angus beef as the centerpieces for this popular holiday meal. Highlights also include Old Bay-spiced chilled shrimp, smoked Scottish salmon and spice grilled Atlantic salmon as well as roasted and chilled fall vegetables. Guests can also expect traditional seasonal offerings like squash soup, cornbread dressing and gravy along with artisan-cured North Carolina meats and cheeses, locally inspired salads and not-so-traditional sides. The feast will offer plenty of vegan and gluten-free holiday meal options and the children's buffet will delight little ones with favorites such as chicken fingers, fruit salad, mac and cheese and tater tots. But for the kid in all of us, the Inn has a special treat planned by welcoming diners to satisfy their sweet tooth in its Thanksgiving open "pastry kitchen" display including an ice cream sandwich station. Start your Thanksgiving day in the Inn's Rotunda with spiced cider, coffee and hot chocolate as seasonal aromas lure you into the ballroom for a unforgettable Southern Thanksgiving meal. Cost is $72 per adult, $25 per child 6 to 12 and children under 6 are free. Reservations available now at eventville.com. For more information call 919.493.6699.
