The Vineyards of Joseph Phelps are Coming to Fairview Dining Room

Indulge in history, tradition and excellence at the Joseph Phelps Wine Dinner on April 3

DURHAM, N.C., March 20, 2019 – Save your sky miles; the taste of Napa Valley is coming to Durham. Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club, the premier AAA Four Diamond luxury inn and golf club located on the campus of Duke University in Durham, North Carolina, will host the Joseph Phelps Wine Dinner, featuring wine selections from the Sonoma Coast, including their pioneering and world-renowned red blend, Insignia, on Wednesday, April 3 at 6:45 p.m.

Sublimely paired with Joseph Phelps Vineyards' selections, guests can expect an unparalleled dining experience as Executive Chef Jason Cunningham curates an exquisite special four-course menu to compliment the evenings pairings. With wines ranging from the iconic Insignia to their reserve dessert wine, Delice, there will be an unmatched option for every attendee's taste buds.

Since 1973, Joseph Phelps Vineyards has dedicated itself to producing wines of character, quality and significance, including their pioneering, world-renowned red blend, Insignia. The family-owned and operated wine estate, founded on a former cattle ranch in Napa Valley, has evolved from its humble origins and sits today on its lofty perch as one of the preeminent wineries in California and the world. Every wine in the Joseph Phelps portfolio is 100 percent estate-grown.

The Joseph Phelps Wine Dinner is hosted by the Fairview Dining Room, a AAA Four Diamond rated restaurant, and costs $139 per person, or $129 for Executive Club members. The event will take place in the Fairview Dining Room.

To make reservations, please call the Fairview Dining Room at (919) 493-6699 or visit the event registration page.

Following the dinner, guests are invited to take the elevator home with a special $139 room rate available to those who attend the event. To make reservations, please call the reservations desk at (919) 490-0999 and mention the April 3 Joseph Phelps Wine Dinner to reserve the deal. Same day reservations are also available.
