Kick Off Fall at the Foraged, Fermented and Fabulous Dinner on the Fairview Patio

The Fairview Dining Room pairs a multi-course, locally-sourced meal with brews from Fullsteam's Forager Series and picturesque fall scenery on its patio

DURHAM, N.C., September 22, 2016 – Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club, the premier AAA Four Diamond luxury inn and golf club located on the campus of Duke University in Durham, North Carolina, will host a Foraged, Fermented and Fabulous Dinner on Wednesday, Oct. 5, starting at 6:45 p.m. The event will take place on the Fairview Patio, offering views of the first touches of fall foliage, weather permitting.

Beer lovers and brewery goers are invited to join the Fairview Dining Room's Executive Chef Jason Cunningham for an exquisite, locally-sourced dining experience with perfectly paired brews from Fullsteam's seasonal Forager Series, a new series of draft and bottled beer, brewed with ingredients sourced in the wild and harvested by the community.

The Forager Series began after forming a group of "Foragers" from members of the Triangle-area community, who gather fruits native to the area like paw paws, persimmons, pears and figs that would otherwise go unused. These fruits are fermented on-site to create unique brews like the award-winning First Frost Winter Persimmon Ale or the Paw Paw Belgian-style Tripel. Chef Jason Cunningham has meticulously tailored the menu to complement the natural flavors from the Forager Series beers, providing for an exceptional gastronomic extravaganza.

During the meal, Fullsteam Brewery Founder and CEO Sean Lilly Wilson and Head Brewer Brian Mandeville will discuss the foraging process and explain how using ingredients gathered from the brewery's backyard continually diversifies and enriches the Durham culinary scene.

The Foraged, Fermented and Fabulous Dinner is hosted by the Fairview Dining Room, a AAA Four Diamond and Forbes Travel Guide Four-Star rated restaurant, and costs $65 per person, or $54 for Executive Club members.
