Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club Unveils Two One-of-a-Kind Duke Attractions Travel Packages

Experience Joan Miro's exceptional work for the first time in North Carolina at the Nasher Museum of Art and the largest population of lemurs outside Madagascar at the Duke Lemur Center, both at Duke University

Durham, NC, September 8, 2014 —The Washington Duke Inn & Golf Club takes great pride in highlighting everything Durham has to offer and over the fall and winter months is partnering with two renowned attractions at Duke University to launch two extraordinary seasonal travel packages for guests. The first package co-sponsored with Our State magazine will allow you to experience the works of Joan Miro with the Nasher Museum of Art's Miro: The Experience of Seeing while the second package will guide you into the unusual behind-the-scenes world of lemurs at the Duke Lemur Center, home to the largest population of lemurs outside of Madagascar.

The Nasher Museum presents a rare glimpse at the later works of Spanish-born artist Joan Miro (1893-1983), one of the greatest innovators of 20th-century art in Europe. A contemporary of Picasso as well as a fellow Catalan, Miro was briefly aligned with the Surrealists in the late 1920s in Paris and went on to create a phenomenal pictorial and sculptural universe throughout her six-decade career. Showcasing works of art exclusively drawn from the last 20 years of the artist's life, Miro: The Experience of Seeing brings an extensive and illuminating body of Miro's work to North Carolina for the first time. Paintings, sculptures and drawings traveled from Spain's national museum of modern and contemporary art, the Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofia in Madrid (Museo Reina Sofia). The exhibition is open Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Thursday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. Closed Monday. The Miro travel package, available from Sept. 14, 2014 through Feb. 22, 2015, includes:

- Deluxe king or double accommodations for one night
- A welcome amenity upon arrival
- Full breakfast per person in the Vista Restaurant
- One Miro admission ticket per person
